Eligibility

- Open to UG/PG students from other recognized colleges and universities.
- All members of a team must be from the same institution.

Team Size

- 3–4 members per team (fixed).

Registration

- Register only through Saviskar, CGC University's official event portal, under the Ad Mad Show listing.
- No registration fee.
- Provide team name, institution, member names with roll number/ID, and contact number.
- Registration closes 3 days before the event; limited spot registration may be allowed, subject to availability.

Format: Single Round, Two-Product Turn

- One round only - Each team performs once before the same judging panel.
- Each team gets one turn of 4–5 minutes.
- Teams draw 2 products by lottery and get 30 minutes to prepare.
- Teams may create one combined ad or two separate ads.
- Both products must be included; skipping one may lead to mark deductions.
- The total performance must remain within the time limit.
- Creative formats such as skits, jingles, mimes, or mock commercials are allowed.
- Warning bell: 1 minute remaining. The mic may be cut if the performance exceeds the limit by more than 30 seconds.
- Props, costumes, and background music are allowed if arranged/submitted in advance.
- Judging will be based on creativity, presentation, originality, product integration, and overall performance.

Judging Criteria

- Creativity & originality across the products pitched
- Clarity of each product's USP / core message
- Stage presence, confidence & delivery
- Audience engagement & humour
- Team coordination & use of turn time

Code of Conduct & Disqualification

- Content must be original and family-friendly; no vulgar, offensive or discriminatory material.
- No plagiarism of real ad campaigns, jingles or copyright music/lyrics — parody in the team's own words is allowed.
- Teams must attempt all 3 drawn products; skipping one leads to a score deduction.
- Any misbehaviour with judges, volunteers or rival teams leads to disqualification of the whole team.
- Props must not be hazardous, flammable, or liable to damage the venue.
- Judges' decision on scoring and disqualification is final and binding.

Prizes

- Winner — Trophy
- 1st Runner-up — Trophy

THE CASE MYSTIQUE

CGC UNIVERSITY MOHALI
Shaping Tomorrow, Today

SAVISKAR 2026
THEME: AEVORIAN REVERIE

Eligibility

- Open to UG/PG students from other recognized colleges and universities.
- All members of a team must be from the same institution.

Team Size

3–4 members per team (fixed).

Registration

- Register only through Saviskar under The Case Mystique listing.
- No registration fee.
- Registration closes 3 days before the event; case/batch/room allocation is shared 1–2 days prior.

Case Structure

- Each team receives a sealed case booklet: case background, evidence/clue cards, and 3–5 witness statements.
- Three original case scenarios of comparable difficulty are used; different teams/batches get different cases.
- Cases mix solid clues with deliberate red herrings — careful reading of ~70–80% of the evidence is needed.

Solving Round

- Teams get 45–60 minutes to study the material and arrive at a solution.
- Two bonus clue envelopes may be released at fixed intervals, or requested early with a small penalty.
- Each team submits a final solution sheet: culprit, motive, method/weapon, with 3–5 lines of reasoning.

Reveal & Result

A short walkthrough reveals the correct solution to all participants after solution sheets are collected. Ties on accuracy are broken by clearer reasoning and lower time taken.

Judging Criteria

Accuracy of final solution	35%
Quality & logic of reasoning	30%
Effective use of clues/evidence	20%
Team coordination	10%
Time taken to solve	5%

Code of Conduct & Disqualification

- No mobile phones, internet or outside help — only the material in the case booklet may be used.
- Tampering with, hiding or damaging another team's evidence leads to immediate disqualification.
- Repeated unauthorized bonus-clue requests may lead to a score deduction.
- Any misbehaviour with invigilators, volunteers or rival teams disqualifies the whole team.
- The invigilators' judges' decision on scoring and disqualification is final and binding.

Prizes

- Winner — Rs. 3,000 + Trophy
- 1st Runner-up — Rs. 2,000 + Trophy

THE OPINION Exchange

Introduction

The competition provides a platform for students to showcase critical thinking, research, logical reasoning, public speaking, rebuttal, and teamwork.

- Affirmative Team: Argues in favour of the motion.
- Negative Team: Argues against the motion.

Participants must maintain academic integrity, professionalism, and respect throughout the competition.

Objectives of the Competition

The competition aims to:

- Develop public speaking and communication skills
- Encourage critical and analytical thinking
- Promote evidence-based argumentation
- Build research, presentation, and rebuttal skills
- Encourage teamwork and strategic thinking
- Foster respectful disagreement and democratic dialogue
- Provide experience in formal competitive debate

Team Size

- 2 speakers per team
- 1 optional reserve speaker
- Only registered speakers may participate

Team Roles

- Affirmative Team: Supports and establishes the motion.
- Negative Team: Opposes and challenges the motion.

Debate Motion

"Skills matter more than traditional degrees for Viksit Bharat 2047."

1. Understanding the Motion

Affirmative Team Must:

- Interpret and define the motion clearly.
- Present arguments supporting the motion.
- Provide relevant evidence and examples.

Negative Team Must:

- Address and clarify the motion where necessary.
- Challenge the Affirmative's arguments.
- Present logical arguments against the motion.
- Support points with evidence, examples, and counterarguments.

1. Definition of the Motion

- Must be reasonable and relevant to the motion.
- Must not distort or avoid the subject.
- Must provide a fair basis for debate.
- Deliberately unreasonable "squirrel" definitions may be penalized.

Debate Format and Speaker Order

The exact number of speakers and duration will be announced by the Organising Committee.

Speaker	Team	Role	Time
Speaker 1– Round 1	Affirmative	Define motion & present arguments	4 Min
Speaker 1- Round 1	Negative	Challenge defination & present argument	4 Min
Speaker 1- Round 2	Affirmative	Develop argument & Rebuttal	2 Min
Speaker 1- Round 2	Negative	Develop argument & Rebuttal	2 Min

Note: The organizing committee may modify the speaking time depending on the number of participating teams and the competition schedule

Speaking Time

1. Time Signals

Bell/Signal System

- 1 Bell: 1 minute remaining.
- 2 Bells: Speaking time has ended.

2. Time Discipline

- Speakers must finish within the allotted time.
- Exceeding the time limit may result in a penalty.
- Speakers must conclude immediately after the final signal.
- The timekeeper's record is official.

The clock starts when the speaker begins the substantive part of the speech.

Content and Argumentation

Arguments must be:

- Relevant and logical
- Supported by credible evidence
- Clearly structured
- Appropriate for a college-level academic debate.

Arguments should ideally include:

- Claim → Reasoning → Evidence/Example → Link to Motion

Distinguish between:

- Facts and opinions
- Evidence and assumptions
- Correlation and causation
- Examples and generalizations

Evidence and Sources

Participants may use:

- Books & academic publications
- Government reports & official statistics
- Reputable news sources
- Peer-reviewed research
- Credible institutional & verified digital sources

1. Evidence Integrity

Participants must not:

- Fabricate statistics or quotations
- Misrepresent research or manipulate data
- Misattribute statements
- Present false information as fact

Misleading or fabricated evidence may result in score deductions or disqualification.

2. Source Acknowledgement

Where appropriate, speakers should identify the source of important statistics, quotations, research findings, or factual claims.

Rebuttal Rules

Speakers should directly address opposing arguments by:

- Identifying weaknesses and assumptions
- Challenging evidence and its relevance
- Presenting counterevidence
- Highlighting contradictions
- Explaining why the argument does not support its conclusion

No New Major Arguments in Final Rebuttal

- Refute opposing arguments
- Compare both sides
- Summarise the team's case
- New substantial arguments in the final rebuttal may be penalized.

Points of Information (POI)

If the organizing committee adopts a POI format, the following rules shall apply:

- POIs may only be offered during the designated period of a speaker's speech.
- The speaker may accept or decline a POI.
- A POI should be brief and relevant.
- The person offering a POI must remain respectful.
- Repeated interruption after a POI has been declined is prohibited.
- The speaker must retain control of the main speech.

If POIs are not part of the announced format, speakers must not interrupt an opponent's speech.

Conduct and Code of Ethics

Participants must:

- Maintain professional and respectful conduct.
- Respect opposing speakers and their arguments.
- Use appropriate language and listen attentively.
